May Graduation Program Slated At the Performing Arts Center

Milwaukee's Performing Arts Center will serve as the setting for Stritch's 1973 commencement exercises on Sat., May 19, at 11:00 a.m. The off-campus location was selected to accommodate the many relatives and friends of this year's class of 167 graduates.

During the graduation ceremony, Sr. M. Aquin Miller will confer academic degrees as follows: Associate of Arts — 21; Bachelor of Arts — 56; and Master of Arts — 90. In addition, the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws (LL.D) will be awarded to the Very Rev. John P. Raynor, S.J., in recognition of his outstanding service to higher education in Wisconsin and the nation.

Father Raynor is president of Marquette University and president of the Wisconsin Association of Independent Colleges and Universities. He will be honored at Stritch's first off-campus graduation program in Uihlein Hall at the PAC. (See photos.)

On Friday evening, May 18, a baccalaureate service will be conducted at the College, and a reception for graduates, their families, and guests will follow. A Mass for the graduates will be celebrated on Saturday morning in the Stritch chapel.

All arrangements are being handled by a committee of graduating students and faculty members.

Stritch

Many Students Enroll in Credit Courses; Continuing Studies Total Remains Steady

Stritch's full- and part-time enrollments for Spring 1973 are greater than those of a year ago, according to Sr. Agnes Clare Beyer, registrar. The present grand total of students enrolled in credit courses is 883, as compared to 805 registered at this time in 1972.

In the Undergraduate Division, there are 370 full-time and 97 part-time students — including 78 men. At the graduate level, 21 full- and 252 part-time students are taking courses — including 67 males. "Special" students number 143 — including 27 men.

The Continuing Studies Division is serving another 451 persons in non-credit courses. Last year's total was 449. These data are not differentiated on the basis of sex, according to Sr. M. Andrée Gaspard, coordinator.

State Grants Assist Seventeen in Studies

During the 1972-73 school year, 17 students in Stritch's Graduate Division have received Educational Manpower Grants from the State of Wisconsin to support their studies in the critical area of learning disabilities.

According to Sr. Laurene Frederick, financial aids officer, these awards reached a record-breaking, combined total of $22,650.

Faculty Meets at Camp For Semester Institute

Dr. Charles E. Mader, assistant professor of education at the University of Illinois, Chicago Circle, and a consultant in creative conflict management, addressed the Stritch faculty during its Spring Institute on Mon., March 12, at Camp Villa Jerome, Hubertus.

The one-day conference on human relations coincided with a day free of classes midpoint in the semester, giving Stritch students time for extra reading and study.

Committee Organized On Human Relations

To assist in its teacher preparation program, Cardinal Stritch College has formed an advisory committee on human relations. Such an advisory group is one of the new administrative code requirements for teacher certifying institutions in Wisconsin.

Fifteen community representatives, faculty members, and students serve on the committee headed by Mrs. Patricia Wolfe, Education Department chairman. Members include Mrs. Jesse Adams, Sarah Lawhorn, Dr. Ashok R. Krishnaney, Aaron Tilton, and Adolphus Ward.

Student members are Rick Gonzalez and Mercedes Vega. Faculty representatives are Jerald Hauser and Srs. Camille Kliebhan, Coletta Dunn, Colette Zirbes, Gabrielle Kowalski, Jeanine Gruesser, and Maryann Dillon.

Stritch Board Elects Minister as Member

Rev. William L. Everett, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, Watertown, Wis., was elected to the Cardinal Stritch College Board of Directors in January.

During his ten years of ministerial life, Rev. Everett has been studying and teaching in the field of special education. He is a graduate of North Central Bible College, Minneapolis; has a Bachelor's degree from Northland College, Ashland; and a Master's degree in special education from Stritch.

Rev. Everett, who is religion chairman of the Wis. Association for Retarded Children, developed a religious recording and curriculum for use around the state in instructional programs for the mentally retarded.

Advisors Help Guide Program in Dietetics

In keeping with guidelines established by the American Dietetic Association, Stritch has established an advisory committee for the Associate of Arts degree program training dietetic technicians.

The eight-member group includes: Mr. Joseph Lo Cicero, board member, Wis. Restaurant Assoc.; Miss Carol Erwin, executive director, Dairy Council of Milwaukee; Mr. Thomas Farley, executive director of School Lunch Services, Milwaukee Public Schools; Mrs. Vida Felsch, consultant dietitian, Mt. Sinai Hospital; Mrs. Marian Meyers, chief therapeutic dietitian, St. Michael's Hospital; Mr. Charles Oswald, executive vice president, Ace Foods; Mrs. Sylvia Sieracki Trenhaile (CSC '60), consulting dietitian for nursing homes, American Medical Services; and Sr. Barbara Marie Weithaus, academic dean.

GALLERY TOUR — Members of the Holy Family Parish Sodality toured San Damiano Studio after a luncheon meeting held on campus recently. Sr. Thomasita Fessler was the luncheon speaker.

FACULTY

Sr. M. Frederick Lochemes, OSF, (r.) professor of history and CSC's placement director, holds a B.A. degree from Seton Hill College and the Ph.D. degree from Catholic University. Sister served as academic dean, 1941-1964, and has worked with Stritch's Mothers Club since its beginning. She has written and co-authored four books.

Mr. William McAsey, (far r., upper) chairman of the Chemistry Department, has served on the faculty since 1949. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Marquette University where he formerly taught. A man who likes to tinker with and repair equipment, Mr. McAsey is also a model railroad buff.

Sr. M. Stephanie Zell, OSF, (far r., lower) has been Stritch's head librarian since 1949. A native of Arkansas, she earned a B.A. in English at the Univ. of Ark. and the B.S. in Library Science degree at the Univ. of Illinois. A member of Beta Phi Mu, Sister is known as a pun-maker whose hobbies include rock-collecting, music, and reading.

Dr. John Perry, (r.) assistant professor of religious studies, has a B.A. degree from Conception College (Mo.) and Ph.D. from Marquette. He has taught at Rockhurst College, Kansas City, Mo., and lectured at Mount Mary College, Milwaukee. A Stritch faculty member since 1968, Dr. Perry is also recognized for his artistic talents as a painter.

Mrs. Jean L. Cotrone, (r.) part-time faculty member of the Home Economics Department, holds a B.S. degree from UW-Stevens Point and an M.S. in her field from UW-Madison. She has taught at the West Milwaukee and Custer (Mil.) High Schools, and UW-M. Mrs. Cotrone is a member of the American and Wis. Home Economics Associations.

Sr. Mary Ann Polasek, OSF, (far r.) Biology Department chairman, is a Stritch graduate who earned her M.A. at Drake University. She has studied at UW-M, Texas Women's U., Drew University, and is working toward another degree at St. Mary's College, Winona. She belongs to the Botanical Soc. of America, Amer. Institute of Biological Sciences, and Nat. Wildlife Federation.

Bro. William Wickham, CSC, (lower r.) coordinator of A.A. program in child care, is a Stritch graduate who also attended St. Edward's University, Austin, Tex. A child care worker at St. Charles Boys Home, Brother William is a member and treasurer of the Wis. Association of Child Care Workers. His hobbies include bowling and boating.

On Campus . . .

Spring Calendar Features Many Activities; Cultural Opportunities, Social Events Noted

April and May will be busy months on campus. Events will range from a student production of Moliere's "The Miser," on Mar. 30-31 and Apr. 1, to the 1973 commencement at Milwaukee's Performing Arts Center, on Sat., May 19. And, of course, spring vacation falls in between — from Apr. 19 to 29.

Except for Easter, Serra Hall will be the setting for music programs on Sundays from Apr. 8 through May 27. Also, as reported below, student art exhibits will continue through the next two months — to be followed in June by the Summer Show.

Coming Art Exhibits

The works of Barbara Banerian and Susan Kujawa, senior art students, will be exhibited in Studio San Damiano during April. A mixed media show — featuring the artworks of continuing education students — will follow in May.

Winning Musicians

Of the four Wisconsin winners in the Music Teachers National Association state high school contest held in January, three are students of the Stritch Music Studios. James McCormick, piano, and Charyl Kneevors, composition, are students of Sr. Romana Hertel; and Audrey Blumenfeld, voice, studies under Josephine Busalacchi.

Scheduled for early April are Student Government Association elections, the student teachers' banquet, a decision-making seminar for education students, and S.G.A.'s Carnival Week. Sr. M. Frederick Lochemes will lecture on "Sojourn in Scandinavia and Russia," Thurs. eve., Apr. 12. A workshop for resident assistants and CSC's Easter Dinner are also slated.

May will begin with the annual Kite Flying Contest, followed by the Spring Cotillion at Hoffman House East on Sat., May 5, leading to Senior Week — with a banquet for graduates and an all-college honors convocation. Then, on May 14-17 . . . final exams.

Mothers Club Meetings

The Mothers Club social calendar will feature three events in the months ahead.

At noon, on Wed., Apr. 25, the Annual Spring Festival will be held in Serra Hall, with Mrs. Harry Brown and Mrs. Arthur Jaeger, as co-chairmen; on Wed., May 16, at 12:30 p.m., a May-Time luncheon and card party will also be held in Serra Hall, with Mrs. Anthony Benzing and Mrs. George Slagle, co-chairmen; at 9:00 a.m., Wed., June 6, the Club will hold an outing at Lake Beulah.

Guests are cordially invited to attend.

Visiting Lecturer

On Wed., Feb. 14, Dr. Hugh Schoep-herster delivered two lectures at the Mid-Winter Institute on Learning Disabilities, sponsored jointly by CSC and the Wisconsin Society for Brain-Injured Children.

The afternoon and evening talks by Minnesota's state director for the Right-to-Read program were "Vitamins Are Cheaper Than Penicillin" and "Remember What It Was Like to Learn to Read?"

Several hundred persons attended each lecture in Stritch's Little Theater.

State-Wide Library Additional Resources

Since last November, Stritch has participated in an interinstitutional project on a grand scale through the Wisconsin Interlibrary Loan Service. Under this plan, 47 institutions of higher education in the state will share their library resources through a custom-service network.

Stritch is one of 20 independent colleges and universities in the W.I.L.S. group. In addition, member institutions include 13 universities in the state system and 14 UW centers in Wisconsin.

Concerts and Recitals Set for April, May

Six major music performances are scheduled for Serra Hall during April and May. These include a concert by Nejmi Succari, Syrian violinist, on Sun., Apr. 8, at 8:00 p.m.; a faculty recital on Sun., Apr. 15, at 3:00 p.m.; and Marie Green's senior recital on Sun., Apr. 29, at 3:00 p.m.

On Sun., May 6, at 8:00 p.m., the Stritch Singers and Chorale will present a spring concert — conducted by Sr. Noreen Zehnpfennig. One week later, Sun., May 13, at 3:00 p.m., student soprano Maureen Griffin will be featured.

Later, on Sun., May 27, at 3:00 p.m., student pianist Charyl Kneevors will present a program of original piano compositions.

Classic Art Films

Films depicting "Pioneers of Modern Painting" were shown on campus during March and early April through the courtesy of the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.

Among the masters featured were Edouard Manet, Paul Cezanne, Claude Monet, Georges Seurat, Henri Rousseau, and Edvard Munch.

Showings, open to the public, were held in the Little Theater.

Home Ec. Club

Three officers of the Cardinal Stritch College Home Economics Club traveled to Chicago for a regional home ec meeting, Feb. 8 and 9. They were Terry Chung — president; Lynda Blanchard — vice president; and Sr. LaVerne Sommer — secretary.

Girls' Basketball

From January through March, the CSC women's basketball team participated in intercollegiate play against other schools in metropolitan Milwaukee. Opponents included Alverno, Carroll, Concordia, Marquette, Milwaukee Area Technical College, Mount Mary, and UW-Waukesha.

Practices were held in the gymnasium of nearby Green Tree School, under the direction of Miss Mary Kujawa, women's athletic coach.

French Contest Winners

For the third consecutive year, CSC students of French have been prize winners in the National Alliance Francaise's annual essay contest.

This year's second- and third-place winners, respectively, are Christine Balistrieri and Diane Crucius, freshmen.

The girls wrote on the subject, "A Portrait of an Average French Man or Woman."

Loan Service Offers to Member Colleges

The loan service, a project of the Council of Wisconsin Librarians, has its headquarters at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Memorial Library. This exchange effort is funded by the participating institutional libraries.

For Stritch faculty members and students at all levels, the program represents an invaluable opportunity for gaining access to academic and reference materials that might otherwise be unavailable to them, according to Sr. M. Stephanie Zell, head librarian here.

ANNUAL FUND HONOR ROLL

Over 350 persons and groups contributed $18,824 to the 1972-73 Stritch Annual Fund during the period from December through early March. Listed below, they include board members, faculty, students, parents, alumni, and other friends. Unless indicated otherwise, the many religious who shared their limited personal allowances are Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi (OSF).

The next issue of Stritch '73 will list donors who give from March through June.

Summer Session Outlined

Stritch's 1973 summer session will offer over 60 graduate and undergraduate courses from June 20 through August 1. Also scheduled are three 3-week institutes and several workshops. Sr. M. Agnes Clare Beyer will direct the program.

Graduate courses for summer will focus upon reading, special education, psychology, and education. Undergraduate courses include art, chemistry, education, French, history, home economics, mathematics, music, psychology, and sociology.

Six of the special education courses will be conducted at St. Coletta Laboratory School, Jefferson, Wis. Among these, two courses in special religious education for the mentally retarded will be held July 5-27 and July 28-Aug. 11, respectively.

Special Opportunities Told

Three-week institutes for teachers will cover (a) Team Teaching and Group Dynamics, (b) Open Teaching and Learning, and (c) Individualization of Instruction: Preparation of Materials and Resources. From June 25 to 29, a one-week institute will explore Values and Classroom Teaching.

Workshops in theology and music are also slated. Vatican II + 10 — New Directions in Ministry will be offered, June 25-30. Workshops for classroom teachers and music specialists will be conducted June 20-July 10, respectively, under the title Creative Experiences in Classroom Music.

Course and Tours Noted

A special graduate course in School Administration will be presented June 25-July 31, and a Pre-Columbian Tour — combined with two art courses — is scheduled for July 29-Aug. 18.
